PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On February 18, 2008, Border Patrol Agent D. Nguyen, was conducting line watch operations in the Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station area of operations. At approximately 7:20 A.M., Border Patrol Agent K. Wies advised Agents via service radio that he observed two individuals running south in an area known as "Campos's Ditch." This area is approximately four miles west of the San Ysidro, California Port of Entry and approximately 40 yards north of the United States/Mexico International Boundary.

Agent Nguyen responded to the area and after a brief search found two individuals attempting to conceal themselves in some brush. Agent Nguyen identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and conducted an immigration inspection. Both individuals, including one later identified as the defendant Jose Augusto PEREZ-Ramos freely admitted to being citizens and nationals of Mexico, not in possession of any immigration documents that would allow them to legally enter or remain in the United States. Agent Nguyen arrested both individuals and arranged for their transport to the Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on January 17, 2008 through San Ysidro, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.
